

TZAFU

ABOUT

Dwelling in the depths of Chicago, Tzafu fuses elements of synthwave, industrial techno, ambient, mid-tempo, and EBM, creating music many describe as primal and ethereal.

In 2020, Tzafu released "Resurrection", an aggressive dark techno song that would later garner mass attention. Later in 2021, Tzafu released "Impermanence", his debut five track EP exploring sound, genre, and the inevitable decay of all things. Tzafu revels in the unpredictability and brutality of experimentation, birthing introspective songs like "Through Static" to unearthly distorted records like "Alchemy".

Through brooding soundscapes and cryptic visuals, Tzafu creates a realm that is more than what's observed on the surface; the pieces being hidden in plain sight.
